

VALUING AN INVESTMENT PROJECT

EDUCATION GOAL

- Make investment decisions using IRR appraisal techniques

WORD FROM THE AUTHOR – Pascal LANGEVIN

« Every day, businesses make investment decisions that put large amounts of money at stake.

This course explains how to analyse these investment decisions from a financial point of view.

It is aimed at anyone wanting to understand and apply investment appraisal techniques to determine whether an investment is profitable or not. »

Level

Intermediate

Expert

1
Module

1h15

M81 – VALUING AN INVESTMENT PROJECT

Objectives education

- Understand the principles of discounting
- Study the main investment appraisal criteria: net present value, internal rate of return, payback period
- Learn how to use appraisal techniques to assess the profitability of an investment

Word from the author

« Every day, businesses make investment decisions that put large amounts of money at stake. This module explains how to analyse these investment decisions from a financial point of view. It is aimed at anyone wanting to understand and apply investment appraisal techniques to determine whether an investment is profitable or not. »

Chapters

- Introduction
- Principles of discounting
- Profitability criteria for a project
- Applying the method

Practical case

- Practical case – “Beleos”